

GERMANS WANT ALLIES TO STAY

Vigorously Oppose Withdrawal of Troops Now in Upper Silesia

REAL WAR THREATENS

Civil Strife on Great Scale Is Menacing, German Note to Entente Declares

LONDON, June 7.—The allied press is withdrawing allied military forces from the Upper Silesian cities and the German government is branded as a war-monger in a German note received today.

The communication, which was a note to all allied nations, was handed to the German ambassador.

The note had warned the Germans that the volunteers must withdraw from the Silesian cities now in the possession of the allied troops. The note also stated that the German government was threatening a civil war which would make the situation untenable.

It is impossible for the German government to bring pressure upon the allied forces, German volunteers, the note continued.

BERLIN, June 7.—Civil war on a great scale is threatened in upper Silesia, the allied troops are withdrawing from the cities, the German government is threatening a civil war which would make the situation untenable.

Germany said she "expected the French to free Silesia of the Polish troops, but if the Germans are disappointed, the German population will be in a state of civil war which will undoubtedly follow."

PARIS, June 7.—The meeting of the supreme council to discuss the Silesian issue was postponed indefinitely today.

A German note was received at the French foreign office today in which the German government declared that it was withdrawing its troops from the Silesian cities.

The note was stated, that the German government was withdrawing its troops from the Silesian cities and was withdrawing its troops from the Silesian cities.

General Hofer, commander of the German volunteers, is still refusing to evacuate the so-called "free zone."

General von Manteuffel, the German ambassador, today protested to the foreign office against the German volunteers.

The German ambassador was informed that the protest could not be received and was told to advise the German government to make every effort to restore order in upper Silesia.

BERLIN, June 7.—Polish insurgents, armed with three armored cars and artillery, attacked the German troops at Kosc and Karcow today.

Polish insurgents have reopened the Katowice railway station.

General Blunck, commander of the Polish troops in Silesia, has ordered General Hofer, commander of the German volunteers, to halt his advance.

The British office threatened to withdraw all the allied troops from the cities they now occupy and allow the Poles to take possession of the German volunteers.

The French evacuated Pless, the Germans fear that the Poles will occupy the city.

German U-Boat, U. S. Trophy, Sunk By Gunboat's Rifles In Accordance With Treaty

CHICAGO, June 7.—A German U-boat was sunk by gunfire today in the waters of Lake Michigan, off Chicago.

The submarine U-97 went to a watery grave from the fourth guns of the U. S. S. Wilmette. The sinking was in accordance with the terms of the international agreement providing for the destruction of the surrendered naval craft.

The U-boat was first towed out into the lake and then "discovered" by naval hydroplanes. The aircraft directed the Wilmette to the fair. Firing started at 2,000 yards. Three rounds of shots were fired. The submarine was towed from its winter moorings in Chicago harbor to the scene of action by the gunboat Haskin. It was one of the first 19 submarines to be surrendered after the signing of the armistice.
